

The Chicago Musical Arts Club Fund provides a college scholarship each year to a student or students nominated in alternating years by the Merit Music School and the Chicago Academy for the Arts. If you are a student at one of these institutions, please speak to the administrators at your school.